Quarterly fund commentary

Asian equity market performance fell on economic growth concerns and turmoil in the Chinese equity market. Chinese economic data disappointed with industrial profits declining 8.8% (August) from a year ago and manufacturing surveys implying an economic contraction. Measures introduced by the Chinese authorities, such as encouraging banks to buy shares and interest rate cuts, somewhat stabilised the market, but a renminbi depreciation later in the quarter raised uncertainty over economic policy. India was a better performer due to low oil prices and an interest rate cut, while the Indonesian equity market lagged the furthest, as the economy suffered from lower commodity prices. We continue to have significant exposure in Hong Kong and China in US-listed companies and Hong Kong listed conglomerates. We also have a notable position in India, where we believe economically sensitive areas should benefit from an economic recovery. We increased holdings in: CK Hutchison, a conglomerate with some undervalued assets, in our view; Minh Group, a Chinese auto parts manufacturer, with a cost advantage over its peers and growing market share; and Chroma ATE, what we view as a profitable and undervalued measuring instruments company. We sold some South Korean holdings, such as Samsung SDI, Shinsegae and Korean Reinsurance, and Telekomunikasi Indonesia due to profit margin pressure and declining revenue from text messaging.

Risk Warnings

The value of investments and any income will fluctuate (this may partly be the result of exchange rate fluctuations) and investors may not get back the full amount invested. As a large portion of the fund is invested in less developed countries, you should be prepared to accept significantly large fluctuations of the value of the fund. The fund invests in a limited number of holdings and is less diversified, and therefore this may result in large fluctuations of the value of the fund. The risks described herein are the fund specific material risks. For more information please consult the current fund and share class specific Key Investor Information Document (KIID) and for a complete set of risks the current prospectus. If you are unsure of any of these risks please contact your advisor.
