Quarterly fund commentary

The final quarter of 2017 was an active period for Central Banks. The US Federal Reserve began to reduce the level of assets on its balance sheet, the European Central Bank announced it intended to reduce the rate of its asset purchase programme from January 2018 and the Bank of England hiked Bank Rate by 0.25%. Despite this backdrop of reduced central bank support, government bonds delivered positive returns with the Gilt market the highest returning of the core markets. This reflected the fact that the policy changes had all been widely communicated in advance. The strong Gilt performance was in part a result of dovish statements that accompanied the hike and the UK government's agreement with the European Union on the first phase of the Brexit negotiations. The fund is mainly invested in government bonds (both developed and emerging markets). Although our long term view is that government bond yields rise, we are finding selective value in some areas. The fund has positions in investment grade corporate bonds and some corporate emerging market bonds. Currency markets provide an additional source of potential return. We continue to maintain a structurally low level of interest rate risk (duration) in the fund. However, from time to time we might add some interest rate exposure to exploit some short term investment opportunities we identify.

The performance period shown here starts on the last day of the first indicated month and ends on the last day of the last indicated month.
